

PATIENT INFORMATION RELEASE AUTHORIZATION

I authorize and understand that the academic institution (represented by its director or by whom he/she designates) and the psychologist and/or psychiatrist that I am being referred to regarding my mental health may exchange information regarding my wellbeing.

I understand that in normal circumstances my right to confidentiality will be maintained. Information will only be shared in case of:

- Risk for another person's wellbeing.
- Risk for my own wellbeing.
- Risk for the institution involving risk behaviors on campus.
- Need of support from the institution (for example, taking medical leave without academic consequences).
- Legal situations that require communication with the institution.
- Requisite established previously in case of assessment interviews or sessions arranged by the institution.

I also understand that the information shared will be of a clinical and diagnostic nature and I will be informed the moment the transmission of information takes place.
